JOB DESCRIPTION

The Deputy Headteacher is responsible to the Headteacher and deputises for him/her. In the absence of the Headteacher, the Deputy Headteacher shall assume responsibility.

Leadership

As a member of the Senior Leadership Team, the Deputy Headteacher will make a major contribution to the leadership and organisation of the whole school, working to develop a shared vision of the strategic direction of the school and contributing to the identification of priorities for development.

Acting as a conduit between the Principal and the Staff:

- Considerable diplomacy is needed when dealing with delicate situations. Above all, it is vital that the Deputy Headteacher has a strong relationship with the Headteacher, but is approachable to parents, pupils, and, importantly, colleagues
- Maintain a high profile around the school, e.g. before and after school at school events etc.

Communication:

- Ensure that all matters relating to role and responsibilities are communicated regularly, efficiently and effectively to the Headteacher, staff, parents, and pupils as necessary, through formal and informal processes
- Communicate and maintain good relationships with parents, and help to ensure that correct policy and procedure is carried out with respect to social events

Discipline:

- Set clear expectations of behaviour and discipline around the school
- Be seen to follow up disobedience/transgressions
- Liaise with Headteacher and Class Teachers on matters of policy and practice relating to discipline and sanctions

Routine organisation and smooth running of the school:

- Liaise with the Headteacher over weekly and daily routines
- Liaise with staff and oversee organisation of extra-curricular lunchtime and after school activities and clubs
- Have an overview of fixture and events programme for the school calendar
- Co-ordination of school visits
- Oversee, with the Headteacher, planning and organisation of school events including liaising with the Administration team as necessary
- Liaise with the Headteacher regarding school assessments
- Oversee supervision arrangements for regular school activities
- Oversee supervision arrangements for Play Sessions
- Help monitor tidiness and general appearance of the school

Academic: standards and delivery of the curriculum:

- With the Headteacher, take responsibility for academic standards, delivery of the curriculum, and the implementation of necessary policies
- Map and track attainment and progress
- Liaise with colleagues to ensure best possible provision of Learning Support – in class, G & T and one-to-one
- Maintain the curriculum overview, both shape and content
- Supervise curriculum planning – long, medium and short term and updating of relevant documentation
- Co-ordinate tracking of achievement, documenting the results and maintaining records
- Prepare, promote, evaluate and review school policy
- Assist with drawing up curriculum action plans which set realistic targets
- Report and evaluate curriculum progress and discussing initiatives as and when necessary
- Assist in monitoring, evaluating and reviewing classroom practice
- Develop an effective transition strategy
- Attend relevant in-service training and keeping in touch with new developments
- Identify and evaluate training and development needs

Timetable and staffing:

- Assist the Headteacher with the planning and organising of the school timetable
- Monitor the induction of all new members of teaching staff and the induction of N.Q.T.s as required
- Co-ordinate and record staff C.P.D.
- Assist the Headteacher with Performance Management Target setting and monitoring

Development Planning:

- Work with the Headteacher on school development planning, monitoring, review and evaluation

Exercise of particular duties

- Perform any reasonable duties as requested by the Headteacher

VISION STATEMENT

Anfield is a Catholic School, where all are committed to creating a loving, caring and joy filled environment which is inspired by Jesus Christ. Anfield is a place where all children are challenged both academically and spiritually, and encouraged to achieve their full potential in all areas of life.

MISSION STATEMENT

Anfield School/Anfield International Kindergarten aims to:

- Be a caring Christian school community, committed to the development of the full potential of all children, irrespective of their personal faith.
- Educate boys and girls in the life of Christian faith and encourage them towards a joyful, free, self-confident and self-disciplined life of faith and virtue.
- Encourage the development in all students the qualities of personal responsibility, consideration, courtesy, tolerance and respect in their relationships with one another, their teachers, the wider community and the environment.
- Work for excellence in all academic, cultural and sporting endeavours, stimulating excitement in learning and requiring discipline in study, whatever the ability of the child.
- Encourage children to be self-motivated, to strive to do their best in everything they do and to have confidence to take risks. We ask much of their strengths and we support them in their weaknesses.
- Encourage children in independent and critical thinking about the standards and values current in society and the global world and to discover and develop a personal faith to guide them throughout their lives.
